VINTAGE US PATRIOTIC FLAG w EAGLE NEEDLEWORK FRAMED OLD

Description:

This vintage needlework is well done. It depicts the American flag and the bald eagle which is perhaps the most emblematic image of the late '30s and '40s. Its visual power is undeniably All-American. I found it at an estate sale and decided it vshould belong to a proud American so I am listing it. It is in a 2 inch wood frame, 26 x 36 and has been professionally mounted, under glass. It is done on an ivory background.

Hi Lynn,

I am a lover of garage sales and eBay, and this was one of my most exciting sales.

My husband and I had gone to Williston, North Dakota for a little getaway. We live in Saskatchewan and enjoy touring your great country. We were getting ready to come home on Sunday and went by a home that had an "Estate Sale." It had been on since Friday and my husband said it wouldn't be worthwhile to stop the last day as there would be nothing left. I insisted we stop and have a look, just for fun. Now he believes this was a very good idea! There were a few big articles left and a table of odds and ends of pots, pans, Tupperware and dishes. I spied this lovely piece of handiwork, about 26 x 36, in a wood frame, under glass, still hanging on the wall. I knew old handwork was highly collectable. There was no price on it. I asked and this man said $1.00. Never in my wildest dreams did I think I would get $293.77 for it.

pany's name on the back. I checked that out and they were no longer in business. We believe it was well over 50 years old.

The person who bought it said it was going to be hung in the lounge of some military building in NC and I don't recall the name of it.

This picture is of me in my antique room where this picture hung until I decided to sell it. I am a Red Hatter and I am getting ready for a tea party.

It had been professionally framed and had the framing com-
