Velma's Story (eBay ID velmalina)

I purchased this Snoopy Astronaut Toy in its original box at a garage sale on a Saturday in May 2007, the people were asking $5.00. I thought it was too high so, I walked around and looked at the other items while comtemplating if this toy would be worth anything. I decided to offer $3.00, which I did, and they accepted. I did not think much of this toy, but I thought Snoopy is collectible, so I listed it.

I listed it and then had a chance to go on a trip with my two sisters and mother (81). I did not want to miss the opportunity, so I closed shop and we took off for 4 days. While gone, I was able to check on my auctions through the computer at the timeshare.

I was shocked when it sold for $311.76! That paid for my whole trip. We celebrated by going out to lunch. Here is a picture of my mom and sister.
